DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

God says regardless of gender, race, economic status, etc. that YOU are a KING in His Kingdom. YOU are a ROYAL priest. YOU are a child of the King, re-born into royalty. And, YOU are a joint heir with Christ Jesus.

- What does being a king, being royalty, mean to you?
- How will this change how you view yourself?
- How will this change how you view others?

What does having a slave or pauper mentality look like?

- In what ways specifically can having slave or pauper mentality hold you back from your destiny?
- How can having a slave or pauper mentality hurt other people around you (family, friends, co-workers... your community at large)?

Prior to this class, what was your understanding about women taking leading roles in church? -- How about in business and/or government?

- How does learning about Phoebe, Deborah, Junia, and Priscilla affect that understanding?

As a king in God's kingdom here and now, what is one thing you could do this week to empower someone else in your life?
